

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK

Chris Nunn – Sunraysia Volleyball

During his 38-year teaching career Chris has introduced countless students to the sport of volleyball.

Chris coaches every Tuesday afternoon in his own time, with additional sessions when preparing for competition. He coaches students for interschool volleyball and leads the only team from the Sunraysia District to participate in the Australian Volleyball Schools Cup 19 times.

Currently three 15 year old students from the Sunraysia region have been selected to represent Australia with the Men's and Women's Volleyball Australia Development Tours to Thailand, all three athletes have been coached by Chris; two of them attending the school where he teaches and coaches

His genuine interest in the wellbeing of his students makes him a very popular teacher and his passion for volleyball is infectious. Chris has previously coached the parents of some of his current volleyball players, when they were his students.

Chris Nunn

“Making a world of difference” at Sunraysia Volleyball